

Theresa Pugh
2313 North Tracy Street
Alexandria, VA 22311
703-507-6843 cell
www.theresapughconsulting.com

Feb -present- Theresa Pugh Consulting, LLC Representing distribution transformer manufacturers, electric utilities and industrial and electric transmission parties seeking permit streamlining in legislation. Advocacy assistance to companies and trade associations before regulatory agencies, the White House (OMB, DPC, NSA), and the Hill. Clients disclosed upon request.

Jan, 2021-Feb. 2023 National Association of Manufacturers, permitting of new factories, EPA GHG regulations, electric vehicles, Environmental Justice, TSCA PIP regulations, energy costs, electric transmission, electricity consequences to manufacturers at FERC, CO₂ and methane regulations; and legislative advocacy before key House and Senate Committees on energy/environmental issues, innovative technologies, and electric car charging stations.

May, 2016-2020, Theresa Pugh Consulting, LLC. Clients include >250 electric utilities, major oil and gas, & major transportation durable goods associations, automobile sector, steel industry manufacturer, pulp/paper/box manufacturing, LNG company & energy think tank. Guest author of POWER magazine article

Jan.5, 2015-March 11, 2016 Vice President, Environment, Health & Construction Policy, Interstate Natural Gas Association of America, Washington, D.C. Directed regulatory projects before EPA and OSHA with emphasis on regulating methane and ozone pollution for natural gas pipeline sector. Oversight of contractors with $800,000 in multi-year research projects to address regulations and research. Review of pending environmental legislation.

August 1, 2001- December 14, 2014 Director, Environmental Services (Registered lobbyist) American Public Power Association (APPA); Washington, D. C. Directed regulatory advocacy before the U. S. EPA, DOE, OMB, CEQ and Congress for water, air, waste and CO₂ regulations and policy. Lead on Clean Power Plan regulation. Managed >$350,000 consulting budget; two committees, and managed 9 contractors. Technical advisor to CEOs on EPA regulations to address climate change. Regulatory advocacy/project management on water policy, water-energy, effluent guidelines, geologic sequestration of CO₂, and cross media pollution. Managed environmental regulatory filings including regulating CO₂ for power sector. Prepared talking points for Wall Street financial rating agencies, state regulators, and PUC commissioners. Prepared witnesses for Congressional hearings. Served on nine SBA Regulatory Review Panels.

Designed and managed “Impact of Greater Reliance on Natural Gas for Electricity Generation”. Testified or presented before numerous public policy organizations including FERC, state legislators, U. S. EPA, CEQ, CEA, and OMB. Designed APPA natural gas infrastructure study Managed comment project before FERC regarding fuel diversity, gas-electric day, and electricity reliability, Jan. 2009. Analysis of natural gas supplies, pipeline, storage and dispatch for electric utility sector in anticipation of fuel switching and retirements/mothballing of coal fired power plants. Leadership participation in multiple regulatory advocacy projects and coalitions including Utility Air Regulatory Group. Analysis and policy recommendations on climate legislation before U. S. Congress, key states, and developments for international treaties. Wrote testimony before Congress on water use, water pollution, and climate legislation (2002-2015). Directed Environmental Management Systems (EMS) project for utility sector. Liaison to other organizations on gas-electric and water utility issues.

Manager, Regulatory Affairs (Water & Air)

American Forest & Paper Association; Washington, D. C. (April 1999-June 2001)

Managed effluent guidelines (chlorine), mercury regulations, and hormone mimickers in paper sector. Managed projects of testing and analysis in anticipation of revisions to existing effluent guidelines for tissue sector. Association liaison to American Council for Capital Formation and Climate Change Coalition, and represented forest/paper sector before Conference of Parties (COP-IV) in Bonn, Germany (international climate treaty conference). Arranged all advocacy projects before U. S. EPA, OMB, and CEQ on cooling water, and mercury issues.

Manager, Regulatory Affairs

American Petroleum Institute (API), Washington, D.C. (April, 1994-June, 1999),

Directed association's refining and exploration/production advocacy on U. S. Great Lakes and Gulf of Mexico (hypoxia) and mercury and heavy metals. Filed comments on numerous EPA actions, coordinated advocacy visits to U. S. EPA, OMB, and technical EPA consultants on behalf of the petroleum sector. Liaison to Clean Air Act coalition on revisions to Clean Air Act before Congress and EPA. On loan from API in 1998 to National Association of Manufacturers (NAM) for coalition management to revise criteria pollutant regulations (ozone and PM). Analyst of state legislation and Congressional actions & wrote testimony for association witnesses before State Regulatory Agencies, EPA, and national policy organizations including ECOS, NSCL, ALEC, etc. Presented testimony before state regulatory advocacy organizations.

Manager, Environmental

American Electronics Association, Washington, D.C. (Nov.1991-April, 1994)

Regulatory advocacy on variety of Clean Air Act, RCRA, mercury, lead, and European Union product take back legislation (before DG 14 in Brussels).

Manager, Environmental Affairs

National Association of Manufacturers (NAM), Washington, D.C. (Nov.1983-Nov.1991) and NAM's Regional Representative from 1983-1986 in Houston

Registered lobbyist on Clean Air Act & Clean Water Act, white papers & advocacy alerts and talking points. Lead Clean Air Act lobbyist; liaison to NAM Environmental Committee.

Special Assistant, U. S. Senator John Tower (deceased) (May 1982- Nov.1983)

Legislative Assistant, State Representative Lamar Smith, 1981-1982 (part-time during college)

Education/Media Training/Computer Skills

Trinity University, BA, Political Science/History (1982)

London School of Economics (1981-summer program through IES) (non-degree program)

Word, PowerPoint, TEAMS, Survey Monkey, & on camera media training

Writing samples/comments from Theresa Pugh Consulting, LLC

Community Service/Personal Hobbies

Host of three Ukrainian refugees in U.S. during their college breaks.

Seminary West Civic Association, Alexandria VA.